

Air Chief Vice Marshall Lord Dowding, After Concluding His Investigation Into Survival, said:

"Look forward to Death as Something to be Infinitely Welcomed When Your Life's Work is Done.

Do not Mourn or Pity those who have gone before you but Think of them as Fortunate. If you Loved them here Continue to Love Them in your Heart until you Meet Them Again."

*An extract from Lord Dowding's book
"Many Mansions"*